Andy Free 'Direct' cremation ceremony (NON-ATTENDED)

We respectfully bring the deceased into our care in a professional manner, we look after them in our funeral home, preparing them in our mortuary and holding there until the morning of the funeral, when we will personally take them to Breckland Crematorium at a time that we have arranged with them in our private vehicle.

We will ensure all necessary papers are completed 72 hours before the Cremation may take place.

You will still have to register the death of the deceased person to allow the cremation to take place; we will guide you in this.

There will be no funeral procession, service or attendance at all.

A coffin of our choice is provided for the funeral.

We will bring the ashes back into our care for your collection at a later date.

We still maintain our very high level of dignity, respect and attendance to detail when looking after a direct non attended funeral. There are lots of reasons a person might want a ceremony like this regardless of cost alone.

We appreciate you entrusting us to take good care of this for you, as opposed to allowing the larger commercial companies to.

£1,940.00

+ Disbursements of £300.00 for Breckland Crematorium and current Doctors fees for the Cremation papers.

Please note: this funeral MUST be paid before the funeral takes place
